JIM GARRISON
claims vote fraud

Pit 1/20/74

with price-gouging by levying a service charge of up to $2 per car in addition to the gasoline rate.

The suit named as the defendant Richard A. Burr who operates Burr's Discount Gas House in Springfield, Mass.

Garrison Appeal

NEW ORLEANS—The Louisiana Supreme Court has ordered a trial of New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison's claim that his bid for re-election was defeated by fraud.

The uannimous decision was handed down two hours after a hearing oi arguments by lawyers for Garrison and for Harry Connick, victor in the Dec. 15 Democratic runoff.

The seven justices reversed a Court of Appeal ruling which held that Garrison's challenge was not trialworthy because he did not name the voters or voter commissioners involved in the alleged fraud.